We need a volunteer or two for next year's CC Yard Sale -

It's time to start thinking about volunteering to coordinate the Great Cobble Creek Yard Sale for 2012. One person can do it easily but two is more fun. It takes about an hour of your time in late April. That's to get copies of the mailbox posters made and posted on each mailbox in the community. After that you just keep track of streets when people call you to sign up. In late May you call the newspaper to post the ad, and then, on the day of the sale, you have to put up the street signs and then take them all down again, maybe an hour total. So, as you can see, it is pretty easy. Training will be provided and salary is commensurate with prior experience. Please send your resume to CC-HR. Or... just let me know if you want to help out.

SPA DAY IS BACK!! September 17th, save the date, we will be doing it up nice all morning. Sign up's coming soon, if you would like to get in on an early spot let me know. We need some big turnout so tell your friends!!

Bocce is now going to be played on Tuesday's at 6:00.

The Ping Pong (Table Tennis) Table Is Upstairs in the fitness center. Go play!! It folds up and will roll into the closet up there to make space for other activities. Please be courteous to other scheduled classes up there.
